New Church Council Structure

Church Council is excited to be moving forward with a restructure to better serve the congregation and church. Church Council is responsible for the oversight of administrative functions, i.e., staffing, budgeting, and property, but it is also responsible for propelling the discipleship plan of the church forward. Council traditionally has focused on the administrative components of its role, but we are making a purposeful effort to become more of a visionary body. Presently ministry areas report ministries they have done or will be planning to Church Council without coordination or knowledge of other ministries' projects. As the guiding body, Church Council will be able to integrate all these ministries more effectively.

This phase has been a work in progress. For the past few years Church Council has worked to form goals and align our ministries and staff with Reveille's vision. We are taking it one step further to integrate all our ministries under teams which represent Reveille's vision and goals as Worship, Grow, and Serve Teams. All present committees and ministries have representation on one of these teams. To further enhance coordination and integration of ministries, Church Council also is forming life-stage councils to represent all members of our congregation: Children's Council, Youth Council, Adult Council, and Senior Adult Council. These Councils will have a voice on the Worship, Grow and Serve Teams to share grassroots ideas and facilitate development of plans.

The new structure had a trial run this fall in the planning, development, and coordination of all facets of the Poverty series based on the book, When Helping Hurts. The sermons reflected a theme that was discussed in all age level Sunday schools and participating small groups with the message further enhanced by Sunday night speakers. The six-week series culminated in Outreach opportunities at Reveille and around Richmond on our day of service, October 26.

We also are excited to open the opportunity for more members of the congregation to be a part of the creative end of planning church initiatives. As we are all ministers, we want to share the joy of serving, to mold dynamic disciples to make a difference in our church and community, and to create a more vibrant church community. We envision a strong lay-led infrastructure, which will allow for smooth transitions as pastors and staff change over time.

At the core of this restructure is the creation of a process by which every Reveille member could move to a deeper level of discipleship in Worship, Grow, and Serve areas. Our ultimate goal is to develop servant followers of Christ who transform the world.

If you have any questions about the restructure or wish to be part of this exciting plan, please contact Doug Forrester, seniorpastor@reveilleumc.org, or Blake MacIver, maciver10@gmail.com.

Twelfth Night

Tuesday, January 6

Yes, it is the title of a play by Shakespeare, but Twelfth Night also is the name for the last night of Christmas. Join us on Tuesday, January 6, in the chapel at 7:00 pm, as we continue to celebrate the birth of Jesus and commemorate the visit of the Three Wise Men.

Following our joyous, child-friendly, music-filled celebration of worship, we will share our stories of Christmas while enjoying hot chocolate and cookies in the welcome center.

OUTREACH

News from the Swansboro Community

Follow-up Meeting with Swansboro Churches

Love Center of Unity (LCU) has invited members from Reveille and Koinonia Christian Church to come together on January 15 (time TBD) and reflect on "What's Next?" for the community of Swansboro.

This meeting will serve as a follow-up to the six-week study on poverty that members from all three churches participated in this fall. The study, "When Helping Hurts," brought together three churches that have all felt God's call to build relationships with the people of Swansboro. On January 15, we will discuss how we can work together.

Anyone who participated in the fall study, has been involved in Swansboro ministries or wants to know more is welcome to participate. Contact Sheelagh Davis at Sheelagh.d@verizon.net or Katie B. Anthony at 359-6041 ext. 111 to RSVP or for details. LCU is located at 30 East Broad Rock Road, Richmond, VA 23224.

Swansboro Notes

Many thanks to Reveille Weekday School for providing 14 Thanksgiving baskets to needy children and their families in November. The baskets contained everything needed to make a complete Thanksgiving meal, including fresh vegetables and a gift card to buy a turkey. With the help of Capital One and Swansboro Baptist Church the school distributed 39 baskets for the holiday.

A Spelling Bee will take place at Swansboro Elementary on Wednesday, January 7, at 1:30 pm. All are welcome.

Love Center of Unity Church recently held a new roof dedication and youth center celebration. Twelve Reveille members participated and shared in the joy as what had once been a dangerous gaping hole in the ceiling of the youth space was now a safe, clean, welcoming Youth Center with a new roof.

Books, Crafts and Food Book Tasting on January 16

If you love children's books, doing crafts, and eating, you won't want to miss Swansboro Elementary School's annual Book Tasting event on Friday, January 16. Students will make crafts and sample foods related to twelve selected books, including Chinese fairy tales, Fish for Jimmy, and The Pepperoni Tree. Volunteers are needed to help with the food, crafts, and fun. To sign up or for more information, contact Sheelagh Davis at Sheelagh.d@verizon.net or Katie B. Anthony at 359-6041, ext. 111.

Friends of the Homeless Stone Soup

On Thursday, January 22, Reveille members will be serving homemade "Stone Soup," cornbread, fruit, and dessert to some of Richmond's homeless population. There are several ways you can help.

We will be preparing the "Stone Soup" at Wonderful Wednesday on January 21 at 6:00 pm in the fellowship hall. Come join us and bring: vegetables (carrots, celery, potatoes, peppers, cabbage, green beans, lima beans and peas, canned or frozen corn), cutting boards, knives, whole bananas, and clementines.

This Wednesday night soup preparation is a wonderful intergenerational outreach ministry. All ages can participate in sharing the love of Christ by preparing a meal for the homeless. Children will help make cornbread muffins for the meal.

As always, we also are collecting plastic food storage containers (used containers are fine). There is a collection area by the elevators (on the red carpet).

You also can help by being one of the servers at Greater Mt. Moriah Baptist Church for an hour or two on January 22. Meet us at Reveille at 11:00 am and carpool or meet us at the site. Child care will be available while serving the meal; please let us know if you need child care by January 14. Look for the sign-up sheet in the welcome center. # CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

Christmas isn't over yet

December was a month to remember. From dressing up in our PJs for the Movie and Mission night, to singing Christmas carols at The Hermitage, to birthday parties for Jesus, December was packed full of joyful anticipation.

PJ Party Movie and Mission Night

I especially loved our annual 4:00 pm Christmas Eve worship service geared towards preschoolers and their families. It was a lively service that celebrated the joy of Jesus' birth. The 5:30 Family Service was filled with beautiful music by our children's bell groups and choirs. Thank you for making Christmas come alive!

Advent Wreath Celebration Night

Remember, Christmas isn't over yet! The 12 days of Christmas began December 25 and end January 5. On January 6, 7:00-8:00 pm, join in the Twelfth Night service to continue celebrating the birth of Jesus with joyous, child-friendly, music-filled worship. After the service we will share stories of Christmas while enjoying hot chocolate and cookies in the welcome center.

Visit the Taste & See Café

On December 7, the Taste & See Café opened for business. This Café serves up treats for children to participate in during Sunday worship. At the Café cart, children can check out a menu and coffee cup. The menu has activities to help engage children during worship. The coffee cup is filled with crayons and bookmarks to use with the menu activities. During the sermon time there is a listening game we play called "BUZZ WORD" that challenges students (and adults) to listen for the top five words used during the sermon each week.

After the service, children return the menus and cups to earn a sticker. After earning 10 stickers, a child receives a prize for being a faithful worship participant. We look forward to serving many loyal customers each Sunday at the Taste & See Café.

Reveille's Stained Glass Window

How many of us, when entering our sanctuary, lift our eyes to the beauty and spiritual power of our Nativity Rose Window? Its constancy is an integral part of our lives here at Reveille, inspiring reverence and prayers of thankfulness for the magnitude of God's love and grace in giving us His Son.

When areas of the stained glass were damaged last year by a storm, several outcomes caused me to reflect that indeed God works in mysterious ways. First, and without question, the scaffolding and repair work drew our eyes upward in a renewed congregational focus on this magnificent work of art. Second, the restoration work revealed previous structural problems that were addressed. Dennis King's photographic exhibit of the damage and repairs enlightened our knowledge and brought sections of the window into closer view. To see the Nativity Medallion in detail through his photograph was a joy to behold.

A third special outcome of the damage was the unexpected discovery of the maker of our window. Etched in a section of glass was:

"MADE IN GRT. BRITAIN
STUDIOS OF GEORGE . L . PAYNE
LONDON . ENGLAND . PATERSON N.J."

This present window, made by the Payne Studios, replaced a former stained glass window which was destroyed, along with the west end of the sanctuary, by a gas-furnace explosion on December 19, 1963.

On September 12, 1964, the congregation returned to worship in the restored sanctuary. The then-new and now-present window was a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Mehaffey.

Following this past year's storm damage, Ken Case, Reveille's facilities manager, gave me a photograph of the etched window section which inspired research of the George L. Payne Studios. This research led me to Rohlf's Stained and Lead-ed Glass Studio in Mount Vernon, NY.

My call to that studio resulted in an enlightening conversation with the owner, Peter Rohlf. It was his father who both competed and collaborated with George L. Payne. In addition to his discussing the histories of both stained glass studios, which merged in 1981, his most interesting revelation was that Reveille's Nativity Window was created by a renowned English stained-glass designer, Frederick W. Cole, Fellow of the British Society of Master Glass Painters. His work with George L. Payne Studios began in 1961.

Sir Frederick W. Cole (1908-1998)

During his service with the Royal Engineers in World War II, he spent time in the Middle East.<sup>1</sup> That experience influenced his portrayal of biblical characters in stained glass windows. Among other honors and accomplishments, he was asked in 1971 to direct the restoration of the stained glass windows in Canterbury Cathedral, and he was knighted by Queen Elizabeth II. Mr. Cole created hundreds of ecclesiastical windows mainly in the U. S. and in Great Britain, one of which is Reveille's.

As we live out the meaning of Christmas in this new year, may our eyes continue to look upward to our Nativity Rose Window as we proclaim, "Glory to God in the Highest!"
