

New Sunday Morning Schedule

Starting September 9

Starting this fall, there will be a few adjustments to our Sunday morning schedule. The Point service will begin 30 minutes earlier, at 9:00 am, and Sunday school classes will officially begin at 9:45 instead of 9:30 am. The new schedule will kick off on Reveille Day, September 9:

8:30-9:30 am	Worship in the chapel
9:00-9:45 am	The Point in the fellowship hall
9:30 am	Sunday school classes may begin to gather for social time
9:45-10:30 am	Official Sunday school time (teaching)
10:30 am	Choirs warm up
10:30-11:00 am	Coffee fellowship
11:00 am	Worship in the sanctuary

The new schedule reflects the importance of Christian formation as part of our discipleship process. These small changes will allow for more of our members to participate in both worship services and Sunday school each week, which is not currently possible for those attending The Point.

Reveille Day

September 9

This year you will be able to attend the worship service of your choice on Reveille Day. Instead of a modified schedule with a combined service, worship services will be held at 8:30 am in the chapel, 9:00 am in the fellowship hall, and 11:00 am in the sanctuary. Sunday school will begin at 9:45 am. A selection of brunch fare will be offered in the welcome center, 9:30-11:00 am, in place of the pot luck meal that has been held following the combined service for the past several years.

Stay tuned for more information about Reveille Day plans and for opportunities to get involved by providing food, serving food, and greeting guests.
