“Ka Hana No’eau O Kaiwi” Paintings by George Kaiwi

Vibrant seascapes and depictions of Hawaii's ocean and marine life are well known and popular among locals and visitors who feel connected with the ocean and are touched by the magic of our islands.

Born and raised in Hawai'i, Hawaiian artist George Kaiwi always had a passion for art. Mostly self-taught, his inspiration came from the love for nature and the ocean. His paintings are known for the vibrant colors and lively imagery and reflect perfectly the tranquility and charm that makes Hawai'i unique and a veritable heaven on earth.

OPPORTUNITIES:

No Hospitality Time? Could it Really Happen?!!

Contact: Marie Anne | 728-4842 | Janice Davis | 551-4748

Our coffee and fellowship time will be discontinued at the end of this month unless there are enough volunteers to form a new Hospitality Team. Two persons are needed each Sunday for roughly 30 minutes before the worship service to prep food and 30 minutes afterwards to clean up and put supplies away. More volunteers mean fewer Sundays each month. Coffee is made by a band member and baked goods are donated by Safeway. Contact Marie Anne or Janice Davis for more information. (Janice Davis)
